Numb 13091.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 25, to Tuesday April 28, 1789.

Whitehall, April 28.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Hon. Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Saint David's, penetrated with the livelieſt Senſe of Gratitude to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events for the Mercy which it hath pleaſed Him to extend to us, in common with every Claſs and Deſcription of your People, by the ſpeedy and compleat Recovery of your Majeſty from a Malady which was juſtly conſidered as a Viſitation of the Nation's Sins, beg Permiſſion, with all Humility, to teſtify our Joy on that happy Occaſion.

In thoſe remote Corners of your Kingdom, in which our Lot is caſt, we live, Sire, diſtant from your Court, but not inſenſible from what Center the Comforts flow, which we have long enjoyed under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government.

The Storm which threatened our own Happineſs in the Sacred Perſon of your Majeſty, was ſeen by us with Dread and Diſmay, and filled our humble Cottages with the Voice of Lamentation and Diſtreſs. Our Prayers ſhall not ceaſe to be offered up to Him, whoſe Mercy hath ſuddenly turned our Mourning into Joy, that your Majeſty may long be preſerved to receive the grateful Tribute of a loyal People's Love and Duty; and that when you ſhall have been called to exchange an earthly for an eternal Crown, you may, with your Sceptre, tranſmit to your Illuſtrious Heir thoſe Royal Virtues which have endeared you to your Subjects, that parental Love of your People, that vigilant Concern for the Public Weal, that Attachment to the Conſtitution, that Reverence for Religion, and that Regard for the eſtabliſhed Church, which are the Gems of brighteſt Luſtre in the Regal Diadem.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Flint, beg Leave (with Hearts filled with that Zeal and Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, which hath ever ſubſiſted with Sincerity in the Breaſts of your faithful People, and with none more ſo than amon ſt your Majeſty's loyal and ancient Britons reſiding in your County of Flint) to offer our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Recovery from that late ſevere Viſitation with which it pleaſed the Almighty to afflict you, and which in it's Conſequences extended itſelf moſt ſeverely to your Majeſty's auguſt and affectionate Houſe, and to your united Kingdoms.

True Loyalty and Affection are beſt proved by ſtrong Attachment in the Hour of Adverſity. The Grief which all Ranks of People expreſſed on your Majeſty's Indiſpoſition, and the univerſal Joy diſplayed upon your Recovery, is the moſt decided Criterion of your poſſeſſing that ſteady Loyalty and unalterable Affection which your Majeſty's Virtues ſo eminently demand.

May your Majeſty's Health, thus providentially and opportunely reſtored, be uninterrupted, and enable your Majeſty in Proſperity and Peace long to exerciſe and direct the Reins of Government over a grateful, happy and free People.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting,

John Fitz Gerald, Sheriff.

[Delivered by Sir Roger Moſtyn, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for the County, and Major Williams, Repreſentative in Parliament for the Borough of Flint.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

At the ſame Time that with unfeigned Loyalty we congratulate your Majeſty on your Reſtoration to Health and Government, we cannot but with all due due Humility and Reſpect join with your Majeſty in the warmeſt Acknowledgments for the additional Proofs which the Two other Eſtates of the Realm have given during your Majeſty's ſevere Indiſpoſition, and the temporary Suſpenſion of the Executive Power, of their Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, and of their zealous Concern for the Honor and Intereſt of your Crown, and good Government of your Majeſty's Dominions.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Hon. Lord Digby, Lord Lieutenant; Anthony Chapman, Eſq; Sheriff; and Francis John Browne, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly offer to your Majeſty our unfeigned Congratulations on the Divine Interpoſition of Providence in the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health: And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that no Part of your Kingdom can be more deeply impreſſed with the Bleſſings derived to us from this happy Event than are your loyal Subjects of this County.

Beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition. We conſider this Event as one of the moſt fortunate Benefits which the Divine Providence ever granted to the fervent Prayers of a Nation: At the ſame Time that we expreſs our Senſe of this ineſtimable Bleſſing, we feel ourſelves indiſpenſably called upon to aſſure your Majeſty, we are happy to reflect that the Meaſures adopted by the Two Houſes of Parliament, during the Interval of your Majeſty's Illneſs, ſupported and confirmed as they have been by the prevailing Voice of the Country, have afforded your Majeſty freſh Proofs of that unſhaken Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, and that Regard for the true Principles of the Conſtitution, as well as of that anxious Concern for the good Government of your Dominions, which it is evident are rooted in the Hearts of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

We earneſtly entreat your Majeſty will be pleaſed to believe, that the loyal Inhabitants of the County of Radnor are as anxious that your Majeſty may long continue to rule over a dutiful and affectionate People, as the Subjects of any Part of your Majeſty's Dominions can be.

[Delivered by the Earl of Oxford, Lord Lieutenant of the County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the pureſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, to expreſs our moſt ardent Joy and offer our Congratulations upon your Majeſty's happy Recovery.

We are perfectly ſenſible that the Welfare of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon is of the utmoſt Importance to the Proſperity of your Kingdoms; we have ſuffered the deepeſt Sorrows and Anxiety during your Majeſty's late Illneſs; and we can now moſt truly profeſs our unbounded Joy and Satisfaction on the Reſtoration of your Health.

We ſhall make our Thankſgivings to Almighty God for the Favours conferred upon us, and ſhall implore the Continuance of your Majeſty's Health to a late Period of human Life, to the Glory of your Majeſty, and the Happineſs of your People.

Hedworth Williamſon.

[Delivered by Sir John Eden, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County.]

As Subjects with the lieveſt Sentiments of Duty, and as Servants with the warmeſt Expreſſions of Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family and Government, we humbly beg Leave to teſtify our unfeigned Joy at your Majeſty's perfect Reſtoration to Health; and, amidſt the general Felicitations, to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on the happy Occaſion.

We alſo devoutly hope that Divine Providence, which has been ſo viſibly indulgent to the Prayers and Wiſhes of a ſupplicating Nation, will long, very long, preſerve to theſe favoured Realms a Sovereign whom we have ſo much Reaſon to revere and love for all the Qualities which can juſtly endear a beneficent King to a grateful and loyal People.

[Delivered by the Earl of Chatham.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The dutiful and loyal Addreſs of the Merchants, Manufacturers and others, Citizens and Inhabitants of Aberdeen, hereto ſubſcribing.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

THE Indiſpoſition with which your Majeſty has been lately afflicted, has occaſioned in the Minds of an affectionate People the moſt lively Grief and unaffected Concern; and almoſt no Opportunity could have occurred by which ſo general and cordial Attachment to your Royal Perſon, and the deepeſt Senſe of Duty and Obligation to the Brunſwick Family, could have been more conſpicuouſly demonſtrated. During a Period of the moſt painful and anxious Solicitude, all Deſcriptions of your Subjects, Sire, were earneſtly and unremittingly employed in fervent Prayers to Heaven for your Majeſty's Recovery; and with the moſt grateful Acknowledgments to the Almighty for the happy Event, we now preſume, with Sentiments of the utmoſt Reſpect and Duty, to join in the general Joy, and to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt cordial Congratulations, on an Occaſion which will be long remembered as an Æra of public Favour from Heaven, and the moſt ſolid Ground of Thankfulneſs to a loyal and affectionate People.

In the Reſtoration of your Majeſty again to ſway the Sceptre of theſe Kingdoms, we recognize with heartfelt Joy the farther Confirmation and Eſtabliſhment of our Conſtitution, with all its happy Privileges, under the Government of a Prince that has ſo long reigned in the Hearts of His People; we have every Aſſurance that Experience itſelf can give, of our Liberties being ſecure, our Rights remaining inviolate, and of the civil and religious Welfare of the Nation being invariably purſued.

Thus

Thus happy in the Poſſeſſion of our beloved Monarch, we cannot but rejoice and unite our Prayers for the Continuance of ſo invaluable a Bleſſing; and that whenever it ſhall pleaſe the Almighty, after a long and happy Reign, to give your Majeſty Poſſeſſion of an incorruptible Crown, we may experience in your Succeſſor all thoſe manly and amiable Virtues that ſo eminently adorn your Majeſty, of which, we are happy to ſay, his Royal Highneſs has already given the ſureſt Pledges to the Nation, by his dutiful Attachment to his Royal Parents during your Majeſty's long and heavy Affliction, and by the Wiſdom and Moderation of his Conduct which has been apparent to all Men.

The bright Example of Virtue, public and domeſtic, which the Nation hath beheld and admired in your Majeſty from the firſt Moment of your happy Union with our Sovereign, demands that Return of Affection and Reverence from His Subjects, that binds them to take Part in every Thing that may affect the Peace of your Royal Boſom, and the Fortunes of your Illuſtrious Houſe. It ſhall be our conſtant and our ardent Prayer, that your tranſcendent Merit may be crowned with uninterrupted Felicity through the Remainder of a long Reign; that the Sceptre of theſe Kingdoms may, to the lateſt Times, continue with your Illuſtrious Progeny, trained by your Example and your Precepts, which Hiſtory ſhall tranſmit to all ſucceeding Ages, to an Imitation of our Sovereign's Virtues and your own.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

PERMIT us, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Dorſet, with no leſs Sincerity and Attachment to your Majeſty than Affection and Loyalty to our King, to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Reſtoration of your Auguſt Conſort to Health, to the important Duties of Government, and to domeſtic Felicity.

With the moſt heartfelt Satisfaction, and ſincereſt Gratitude to Heaven, we no leſs participate in the Happineſs and Joy which your Majeſty muſt now experience, than we did in the deep Affliction in which your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Family were involved during our beloved King's ſevere Indiſpoſition. And we devoutly pray that nothing may interrupt that public Joy and Tranquility, and that domeſtic Comfort and Satisfaction, which by His Majeſty's happy Recovery are reſtored and confirmed. To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, James Earl of Findlater and Seafield, Hereditary Conſtable, and the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Conſtabulary and Royal Borough of Cullen, aſſembled in Council, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on the Recovery of your Royal Conſort.

Your

Your Majeſty has long poſſeſſed the Affection and Reſpect of your People, from the brilliant Example of domeſtic Virtue exhibited in your Conduct, and from the affable and moderate yet dignified Manner in which you have filled the great Political Situation in which, happily for this Country, Providence has placed you.

Thoſe Feelings of a loyal and grateful People have been particularly called forth by the late trying Circumſtance of their Sovereign's Indiſpoſition.

Sympathizing in the Affliction, and admiring the Deportment of your Majeſty, allow them now to participate in the moſt cordial Manner the Joy which your Majeſty muſt feel from the happy Event of the King's Recovery.

That your Majeſty and our Royal Sovereign may enjoy permanent Felicity, that we may long be bleſſed under your happy Government, is the earneſt Prayer of your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, the Deans and Chapters of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, and of Saint Patrick's, Dublin, and of the Clergy of the City and Dioceſe of Dublin.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbiſhop, the Deans and Chapters of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, and of Saint Patrick's, Dublin, and the Clergy of the City and Dioceſe of Dublin, penetrated with the moſt lively Sentiments of Gratitude to Almighty God, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our moſt unfeigned Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Recovery from your late ſevere Indiſpoſition.

The manifold Bleſſings which we, in common with every other Claſs of your Majeſty's Subjects, have ſo uniformly enjoyed under your mild and auſpicious Government, call on us (whoſe peculiar Duty it is to inculcate the Truths of the Goſpel) to acknowledge with the moſt ardent Gratitude the ſalutary Influence of your Royal Example on the Morals of your People, and the Senſe we feel of your Majeſty's Efforts for the Advancement of true Religion, by a conſtant and zealous Protection of the National Church.

Thus, truly ſenſible of the innumerable Bleſſings we enjoy under your parental Government, we want Words to expreſs the grateful Feelings of our Hearts on your Majeſty's Recovery.

May therefore the benign Diſpenſer of all good and perfect Gifts vouchſafe to your Majeſty the continued Enjoyment of the Bleſſing of Health, and long preſerve to us a Life ſo beneficial to the Intereſts of the Chriſtian Church, and ſo eſſential to the Proſperity and Happineſs of all your Subjects.

Dated this 18th Day of April, 1789.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Governor, Nobility, Clergy, Proteſtant and Roman Catholick Freeholders, Gentry and Inhabitants of the County of Waterford.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Governor, Nobility, Clergy, Proteſtant and Roman Catholick Freeholders, Gentry and Inhabitants of the County of Waterford, in the Kingdom of Ireland, beg Leave to preſent our humble Congratulations on the happy Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health.

We are bound to acknowledge the ineſtimable Goodneſs of Almighty God, who, in prolonging a Life of ſuch national Conſequence, has reſtored your Majeſty to a free and loyal People.

A perfect Knowledge of your Majeſty's Royal Virtues, ſo eminently conſpicuous ſince the Commencement of your Reign, and your Care and Anxiety for the Happineſs of your Subjects throughout all your Dominions, opens to our View the faireſt Proſpect of a Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings, which, under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, we have always enjoyed.

No Part of your Majeſty's Dominions has received more ſignal Marks of your Royal Favour, than your Kingdom of Ireland, and no Nation can be more grateful for them; the Jealouſy of former Ages has been entirely done away, and your Throne is now fixed on a Foundation never to be ſhaken.

When we contemplate thoſe Principles of Liberty which originally called the Houſe of Brunſwick to the Government of theſe Realms; and when we reflect that in your Majeſty's Perſon they have gained additional Luſtre; we pray to Divine Providence that ſacred and unerring Wiſdom may ever be your Guide; that Truth and Juſtice may crown you with every Bleſſing; and that future Ages may commemorate the Happineſs of your Reign with grateful Admiration.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.
